Homework #0

Your Name:

Use reasonable search techniques to answer the following questions.

1. The term algorithms comes from my name.

   I am ____________________________________________________________

   My dates are ____________________________________________________

2. I'm sometimes called the godfather of algorithms.

   I am ____________________________________________________________

   My dates are ____________________________________________________

3. I invented the calculus and several useful algorithms.

   I am ____________________________________________________________

   My dates are ____________________________________________________

4. I'm usually given credit for the formal definition of algorithm.

   I am ____________________________________________________________

   My dates are ____________________________________________________

5. I'm often given credit for the first non-trivial algorithm.

   I am ____________________________________________________________

   My dates are ____________________________________________________

6. We're your TAs.

   Our names are __________________________________________________

The search techniques I used were:

♣

◊

♠

♥

POLICY: No late homework accepted.