Important Logistics

Some rules:

Be on time
- 50 min sessions very short, I will start on time, if you are late you won't get a quiz etc.
- I'll try to make it worth your while to be here on time

Participate
- This class requires you to engage others in discussion and keep up with current events

No laptops, cell phones, newspapers, etc.
- Laptop use generally a distraction, for you and for others
- If you have a good reason for needing a laptop, come see me
- If you don't want to be here, no one is forcing you, be respectful
- I will post slides a day ahead of time so you can print and bring along

Students with Disabilities

Accommodations are collaborative efforts between students, faculty and Disability Access Services (DAS). Students with accommodations approved through DAS are responsible for contacting the faculty member in charge of the course prior to or during the first week of the term to discuss accommodations. Students who believe they are eligible for accommodations but who have not yet obtained approval through DAS should contact DAS immediately at 737-4098.
Student Conduct

- Link to Statement of Expectations for Student Conduct, i.e., cheating policies

- These rules will be strictly enforced

- Pay special attention to plagiarism section:
  PLAGIARISM - representing the words or ideas of another person or presenting someone else's words, ideas, artistry or data as one's own, or using one's own previously submitted work. Plagiarism includes but is not limited to copying another person's work (including unpublished material) without appropriate referencing, presenting someone else's opinions and theories as one's own, or working jointly on a project and then submitting it as one's own.
