Things not to use in your code!

Things NOT to have in your code. Your project will not be graded if you use any of these.

- Global Variables
- goto statements
- continue statements

or anything that is the equivalent of these. For example, having a public data member in a class is equivalent to a global variable.

This list is not exhaustive.